

How to access your Coursemate course

Registration

1. Log into www.cengagebrain.com and go to "register a product" in the upper right corner.
2. If you do not have a CengageBrain SSO account, you will need to register for an account. (see illustration below)
3. If you are an existing user, you should enter your credentials to access the site. (see illustration below)

4. Once you've established your account, or logged in with your existing credentials. You now need to register the code(s) provided by your instructor. You will have two codes. An enterprise license code and a course key. The enterprise license code will be entered first in the area shown in the illustration below.

The screenshot shows the CengageBrain 'My Home' dashboard. A blue circle with the number '4' is positioned on the left, with an arrow pointing to the 'Register' button in the 'Have Another Product to Register?' section. The dashboard includes a search bar at the top, navigation links for 'My Home' and 'My Account', and a 'My Courses & Materials' section listing 'Precision Machining Technology, 2nd Edition' and 'American Pageant, AP® Edition, 16th Edition'. The 'Have Another Product to Register?' section contains a text input field, a 'Register' button, and instructions on how to enter an Access Code. Below this is a 'Support: Need help?' section with links to FAQs and support contact information.

5. You should confirm the institution information is correct for the product the Coursemate product they are registering and click continue if everything is correct.

6. You should now see the product listed on your "My home" page.

Click "open" to enroll in your course by entering the course key your instructor also provided.
